CPA | Audit Manager

Lia Dunne grew up in the Sierra Nevada mountains in a small town near Yosemite National Park. After graduating from University California Santa Barbara in 2001 with a B.A. in Business Economics with an emphasis in Accounting and a minor in Professional Writing, Lia began her public accounting career with KPMG in San Francisco, CA. Lia has been lucky enough to work at four public accounting firms over the course of her career, arriving at Nichols Accounting Group with 17 years of audit and accounting experience. Lia focuses on audits and reviews of financial statements, as well as internal control examinations. Her industry specializations include non-profits, for-profits, and employee benefit plans. Lia enjoys building strong working relationships with her clients and making the audit process fun.

Lia is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, as well as the Idaho Society of CPAs. She is also part of the Idaho Non-Profit Center, and the South Western Idaho Manufacturing Association.

In her free time, Lia enjoys spending time with her husband and three children. Together they like to ski, camp, hike, and kayak. Lia also has a passion for cooking, baking, and reading.
